ERWIN A. GALLAGHER SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

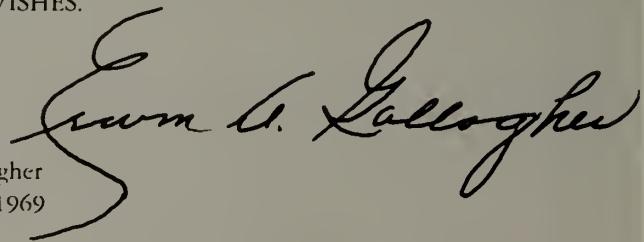

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1970:

As seniors, you are about to leave Saugus High School and proceed to other goals. For some of you this means continued study at an institution of higher learning. For others, it means that you will seek immediate employment. Whether your path leads you one way or the other, I believe that each of you will exemplify the ideals that will demonstrate the worth and dignity of each person that you come to know and that you will respect the worthiness of his contribution to your life.

Never has a group of young men and women had an opportunity to be as well prepared for your new roles as you have. You have shown that you are interested in the problems of our community and society and are willing to commit yourselves to their solution. With adequate direction to supplement your own motivation, you can do much to promote an era of social change.

May I then extend to you my congratulations for your achievements here at Saugus High School? Whether they have been educational, musical, or athletic is not as relevant as whether you have made a contribution to your school and community.

BEST WISHES.

Erwin A. Gallagher

PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates,

The time has arrived once again when Saugus High School increases the rank of its alumni by adding the class of 1969 to the roster.

It is always the concern of the staff and administration of a comprehensive secondary school as to how well they prepared each member of the graduating class. In these days of "change," "protest" and "revolt" there is an added responsibility in the area of citizenship which must be considered. It is my hope that we have given some constructive directives toward the influence of good judgment. I feel that communication is an important factor in any "change" or "protest."

I point out the dictionary definition of these three words for your consideration. A "change" is to alter by substituting something else for. A "protest" is a formal objection as in writing against some act, proceeding or condition. A "revolt" is to renounce allegiance.

After meditating on these three definitions it is obvious that the "change" and "protest" approach invokes communication whereas the "revolt" eliminates communication.

As societal beings we should resort to an avenue of communication in all our dealings. If we all use this philosophy progress and growth are inevitable.

I wish each and every graduate every success and happiness that can be yours.

Santa Claus, assisted by three clowns, gave out the gifts. Following this were games and refreshments. The party was sponsored by the sociology-psychology classes.

FOOTBALL

The Saugus High football team had a very successful season this year with a record of 7 wins and 2 losses. This marked the second time in 19 years that a Saugus football team won 7 games. The team's only two losses were to Class A champion Peabody and Class B champion Swamscott.

There were many outstanding players for the Sachems and this was shown by the seven Sachems who were chosen on the Northeastern Conference All Stars. Bob Osgood and Bill Eichel made the first offensive team, while Steve Nelson was chosen for the first defensive team. Honorable mention awards were given to Rich Desisto, Bill Babcock, Rich Conti, and John Richard.

JUNIOR VARSITY

James Canning, Peter Miles, William Jarzynka, John Gannon, Michael Howard.

Saugus featured an explosive basketball team this year. Although the team had only an average record (6-10), it came out on several occasions to upset higher ranking teams. The Sachem hoopsters were one of few teams to topple favored Newburyport and Marblehead on their courts, and the Saugus quintet nearly overturned powerful Swampscott twice. The high scoring of Bob Osgood (12.4 ppg) and Bob Bashford (10.9 ppg) and the tenacious defensive play of John Richard, gave the Sachems a thrilling combination which often surprised their opponents.

ROW 1: William Babcock, Robert Tilley, George Lasquade, Daniel Heaney, Michael O'Hearn, Henry Merrifield.

HOCKEY

The Sachem sextet skated to the Northeast Conference Championship this year. The first line, comprised of George Lasquade, who set the individual assist record for a season, and Dan Heaney and Bob Tilley, established an all-time league record for most assists in a season. Mike O'Hearn, voted the League's best defenseman, along with defense partner Bill Babcock and goalie Bud Merrifield, provided Saugus with the best defense in the Conference.
